Securities Fund & Futures Fund Regulation of Funds With Dual Elements Of Securities & Futures Privately Offered Funds Relying on Regulation D Rule 506

© Nancy Fallon-Houle 1998-2003

Law and Issue	Securities Fund Legal Requirements, Exemptions & Suggested Action	Futures Fund Legal Requirements, Exemptions & Suggested Action
1933 Securities Act (Securities Registration or Exemption); Filing Requirement	Regulation D Rule 506 Exemption form registration. File Form D with Securities and Exchange Commission. Private Offering, must comply with the restriction on general solicitation. Unlimited accredited investors, 35 nonaccredited investors. 1933 Act applies to futures funds, because offering a pooled interest = a security.
Disclosure Documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Offering Memo under the Securities '33 Act (Reg D) and Rule 10b-5, and</li> <li>Disclosure Document for CFTC</li> </ul> Use Same Disclosure Document for Both	Offering Memo (Disclosure Document) Required, under 10b-5 (Antifraud) provisions of 1933 and 1934 Acts. Even private fund exempt from SEC registration, must prepare a full Disclosure Document / Offering Memo, and distribute to investors. Contents dictated by Rule 502 of Reg D. Overlaps in many aspects, so we use one book to cover both requirements.	CFTC's futures fund disclosure is similar to securities fund offering memo under '33 Act. But disclosure more complex for futures fund. Book subject to CFTC review, though often cursory review. File book with NFA & CFTC. Contents dictated by CFTC Rules 4.24 and 4.25. Overlaps in many aspects, so we use one book to cover both requirements.
Financial Statement Requirements	Unaudited Opening Balance Sheet. Unaudited Continuing Financials if all investors accredited. Audited Opening Balance Sheet Required for New Fund if nonaccredited investors. Audited Continuing Financials if nonaccredited investors.	Audited Financial Statements for Commodity Pool, unless exemptions apply. Performance Tables for CTAs.
Blue Sky (State Securities Law) – State Registration of Fund	Form D Notice Filing Required + Other Documents + Filing Fees in Each State (Filing Fees Range From $75 to $985, average is $200-$300 per state.	No additional filings required for Futures; NASAA Commodity Pool Guidelines do not apply because fund is not publicly offered.

1934 Exchange Act – Broker-Dealer Registration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Broker-Dealer Registration, or</li> <li>• Issuer-Dealer Registration or Exemption</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use a registered broker dealer to sell Fund Interests, or</li> <li>• If not using brokers, rely on federal Rule 3(a)(4)-1 for an exemption from broker-dealer registration for an officer of the issuer. Officer cannot be involved in offerings of any other issuers; receives no commissions, has not been involved in the last 12 months in any other offering, or</li> <li>• Register the officer or director with the NASD if person will be receiving compensation, commissions, finders fees, stock for bringing investors into the Fund. Series 7 Exam, U-4, Fingerprint cards. No bonding or net capital required.</li> </ul>
State Broker-Dealer , or Issuer- Dealer, Registrations or Exemptions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use registered broker-dealer,</li> <li>• Register any employee of the Issuer as an “agent of the Issuer” (Series 7 and 63 Exams required), U-4, some states require fingerprint cards, or</li> <li>• Rely on state Issuer-Dealer Exemptions for Officers or Directors of the Issuer, who are not taking any fees for brining in investors. A few states have such exemptions. States which do not have exemptions are CT, NH, VT, FL, among others. Illinois exemption at §2.</li> </ul>
Commodities Exchange Act Applicability	Commodities Exchange Act applies as soon as only 1 futures contract will be traded for the fund (“commodity pool”). Even using futures to hedge in a securities fund, can trigger CEA applicability.
Commodities Exchange Act – NFA and CFTC Registration of People and Entities Offering the Fund	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Register the people with NFA / CFTC on Form 8-R as associated persons.</li> <li>• Need Series 3 Exam</li> <li>• Need Fingerprint cards.</li> <li>• Register the Fund Manager (“sponsor”) with NFA / CFTC as a Commodity Pool Operator<sup>1</sup> (CPO) and as a Commodity Trading Advisor (CTA) on Form 7-R.</li> </ul>
Commodities Exchange Act – NFA and CFTC Registration - or Exemption – of the Fund Itself	If &lt;10% of the aggregate and additional margins are futures, then fund relieved of CFTC commodity pool record keeping (Rule 4.12). Disclosure doc less complex, customer account opening documents not required if already done on the securities side for and customers. Register Fund with CFTC &amp; NFA as “Commodity Pool”<sup>2</sup> NFA review easier than CFTC.<sup>3</sup> Exemptions from full CFTC registration, but CFTC &amp; NFA Notice Filings still required before offers are made: Rule 4.13: Start-Up fund (single fund only) which has total gross capital contributions of ≤ $200,000, and ≤ 15 investors, and the fund is being charged

		only administrative expense, no management fees. Rule 4.5: Funds Exempt from '33 Act under Reg D 506. Notice required. Rule 4.7: QEP investor fund. Less than full disclosure requirements, shorter doc, fewer reporting requirements.
1940 Act (Investment Company Act – Registration of Exemption)	Exemptions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• § 3(c)(1) for 100 accredited investors</li> <li>• §3(c)(7) for 500 QEP purchasers, or</li> <li>• §3(b)(1) Exemption for Commodity Pools: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Fund investments must be <math>\geq</math> 40 % commodities or futures, in order to be exempt from '40 Act Registration.</li> <li>○ Exclude T-Bills from numerator and denominator to determine 40%.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	§3(b)(1) for commodity pools Commodities Act compliance required. Issuer cannot avoid both Commodities Act and 1940 Act.
State Investment Company Acts – Blue Sky	None	None
Investment Adviser’s Act of 1940: Applies to entities, often fund managers, who either manage more than one fund, or who advise investors in which fund to invest.	Principals take Series 66 Exam (or has previous Series 65). Manager Files Form ADV with SEC on IARD electronic system, to register as investment adviser. SEC will audit Adviser once every 3 years, unless facts determine more frequent audit. Solid ADV disclosure, fund disclosure, trading compliance manual and AML compliance manual, will streamline the audit.
State Investment Adviser Registration	Simple electronic notifications (and small fees) required in states where Manager resides, and perhaps in states where fund clients reside (though not all states require notices where fund clients reside).
U.S. Patriot Act. Applies to any fund accepting money from non-U.S. investors, banks, brokerage houses, or any others.	Fund manager must implement, and follow, Anti-Money Laundering Procedures, Compliance and Certifications by non-US investors.
